

For purposes of this regulation, "Personal services" are defined as those performed directly by an individual who does not have an employee relationship to either the Government or a third party or those which are performed by an employee of a third party when the particular talent or experience of the person makes such service unique.

In applying this definition it should be understood that the term "Government" includes our proprietary activities.